

QCGC RESEARCH ANNUAL

PATIENT & COMMUNITY Symposium

SATURDAY 7 OCTOBER 2023

INVITATION

Please join us for a special symposium and help QCGC Research celebrate its anniversary!

Celebrating
20 YEARS

Giving hope to women and girls by improving gynaecological cancer treatments and survival with our world-leading research.

SATURDAY, 7 OCTOBER 2023 | 9.00AM-2.00PM

ES MEYERS LECTURE THEATRE
MAYNE MEDICAL SCHOOL BUILDING
THE UNIVERSITY OF QUEENSLAND, HERSTON CAMPUS
288 HERSTON ROAD HERSTON 4006

Register by copying this URL <https://bit.ly/3DgH49t> into your browser or scanning the QR Code using your smartphone camera.

This is a free event and includes free parking, morning tea and a light lunch. Self guided tours of UQ's Mayne Medical Building and the Marks-Hirschfeld Museum of Medical History will also be on offer.

Scan me

Please email e.capaldi@uq.edu.au or call 07 3346 5031 if you require further information or need assistance to register.

QCGC RESEARCH ANNUAL

PATIENT & COMMUNITY

Symposium

SATURDAY 7 OCTOBER 2023

PROGRAM

PRESENTATIONS

Expert Panel discuss the Cervical Cancer Elimination initiative. Is it achievable or not?

Dr Rene Pareja, Dr Tamara Butler, Prof Andreas Obermair

Clinical trials from a patient's perspective

Annie Ellis

TEA BREAK

Research Update

Prof Andreas Obermair

Living with Vulval Cancer

Anne Mellon

LUNCH BREAK

Immunotherapy Demystified

Prof Clare Scott

International Research we need to know about!

Dr Kris Moloney

Celebrating

20 YEARS

Giving hope to women and girls and improving gynaecological cancer treatments and survival with our world-leading research.

Take a self-guided tour of UQ's Mayne Medical Building and the Marks-Hirschfeld Museum of Medical History.

SELF GUIDED TOURS

Exhibition objects have a story to tell, often a thrilling blend of terror, hope, skill and beauty.