

2017 Patient Symposium

Customs House

Saturday 26 August 2017, 9.30am-1.15pm

Bringing together women undergoing treatment for gynaecological cancer, their family & friends and other guests interested in learning about current research into gynaecological cancers.

Sincere thanks to AstraZeneca Australia for sponsoring & supporting our patient symposium.

Welcome - MC (Lisa Harrold)

Professor Monika Janda, Faculty of Health, QUT

Prevalence, incidence and risk factors of lymphoedema following gynaecological cancer: results from a longitudinal cohort study (LEGS)

Dr Robyn Box, Qld Lymphoedema & Breast Oncology Physiotherapy

How to treat and prevent lymphoedema

Dr Shaun McGrath, Gynaecological Oncology Fellow

Update on genetic testing and gynaecological cancer

Elise Worthington, ABC Journalist

Personal story with BRCA1 gene mutation

- Refreshment break -

Dr Jeffrey Goh, Medical Oncologist

How does chemotherapy work?

Dr Celia Webby, Board Member - Cherish Women's Cancer Foundation

Launch of CA125 app

Prof Andreas Obermair, Director of QCGC Research

Gynaecological cancer research update

Closing and thanks - Lisa Harrold